PIV Synod 2018

Episcopal Church leaders to give GC preview

The Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church, the Most Rev. Michael Curry, will head up a trio of Episcopal Church leaders to give the Province IV Synod a preview and general orientation of General Convention this summer.

Joining the Presiding Bishop will be the Rev. Gay Clark Jennings, President of the House of Deputies, and the Rev. Canon Michael Barlowe, Executive Officer of the General Convention.

The Province IV 2018 Synod will be held Wednesday - Friday, June 6-8, at Kanuga Conferences, near Hendersonville, N.C.

The 79th General Convention will be held in Austin, Texas, July 5-13.

In addition to the preview of General Convention, the Province will elect officers for the next Triennium, 2019-2021. Offices to be filled by election are President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and lay representative to Executive Council.

President Angela Daniel will complete her second term as president and is ineligible for another term. The Rt. Rev. Don Johnson will be completing his term as Vice President, but because he has announced his intention to retire, will not be seeking another term in this office. Tess Judge will be stepping down as Province IV's lay representative to Executive Council after six years of service, and is ineligible to serve again in that role.

In addition, the Synod will nominate three lay persons and three clergy persons for the Joint Nominating Committee To Elect a Presiding Bishop. Then at General Convention during the Provincial Caucuses, the Province will narrow that list

'Our Lord is risen indeed!'

"Guess what, Grammy! We dug up the box of 'alleluias' this morning - and Jesus is ALIVE!"

— Ella Daniel, age 4, on Easter morning

Dear Fellow Children of God,

Our Lord is risen, indeed — alleluia! Holy Week was particularly meaningful for me this year. On Maundy Thursday, I participated in our service by reading the 22nd Psalm, and I seemed to lose myself in the emotions invoked by the powerful images created therein. I viscerally felt the suffering; I felt the sense of desperation and betrayal; yet, my heart was lifted by words of praise and faith.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The combined lessons of Holy Week reminded me, once again, of the importance of the reality of the Crucifixion. As a human being, Christ felt excruciating pain, bled real blood, felt actual confusion and agony and disappointment - all more reason for the celebration and joy of the Resurrection! The most humbling fact is that he did it all for the likes of you and me. And so: "My soul shall live for him...."

I am looking forward to being with all of you, both to share the news of ministries in Province IV and to prepare ourselves for the work of General Convention. We had been informed, originally, that our beloved Presiding Bishop, The Most Reverend Michael Curry, would not be with us at Synod - a true disappointment since he is one of PIV's own. Breaking news: Plans were changed and, happily, he will be able to join us, if only for a short time. We are delighted that The Reverend Gay Clark Jennings, President of The House of Deputies, and The Reverend Canon Michael Barlowe, Secretary to The House of Deputies, will be with us to provide orientation for General Convention 2018.

Also, for our opening Celebration of Holy Eucharist, we will welcome to the pulpit The Reverend Michael Sullivan, President of Kanuga Conferences, Inc. Michael+ was unable to join us last year, so we are especially thankful for his presence with us in June. A special welcome and congratulations to our PIV representatives to the Official Youth Presence: Helena Upshaw of the Diocese of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina and Justin Mullis of the Diocese of North Carolina. After last year's absence, The Very Reverend Timothy Kimbrough will be back to “tickle the ivories” for us as we gather in song - and we are most grateful.

As you meet with your deputations between now and June, please pray for wisdom and courage, for open minds and open hearts, and for an enthusiastic willingness to follow where God leads us. Please consider serving Province IV as an officer or as representative to the Executive Council of The Episcopal Church. Trust me - it is a true joy to serve! Information regarding nominations may be found at: www.provinceiv.org. If you have questions or suggestions for Synod, please do not hesitate to e-mail or to call me: 803-422-8518 (cell); amdaniel@sc.rr.com. I'm always happy to hear from you!

As we finalize our plans for Synod, and beyond for General Convention, let us remember that we are among those who are called, as Psalm 22 says, to “come and make known to a people yet unborn the saving deeds that he has done.” Let us act boldly to do the work that our Lord has called us to do.

Faithfully,

to two persons in each order. Then the full General Convention will elect one person in each order to serve on the committee. This committee typically will not meet unless the Presiding Bishop cannot continue to serve in that office; then the committee will convene to determine a way forward for replacing the Presiding Bishop. (In the last triennium of the Presiding Bishop's tenure, the committee then becomes a very vital group in that it functions as a church-wide “search committee.” That will not occur for another three years.)

The links for the offices to be filled, the job descriptions for each, and an online Nomination Form are all found on the home page of the Province IV website: www.provinceiv.org.

Also at Synod, the Province will meet the official Youth Presence at General Convention — Helena Upshaw from the Episcopal Church in South Carolina, and Justin Mullis of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Other presentations will be by Michael Wood-Miles, Young

Adult and Campus Ministries coordinator for Province I; Tess Judge and the Rev. Cn. Frank Logue, PIV's representatives to Executive Council; and the representatives of the Province IV ECW and UTO.

PIV 2018 Ministry Grants awarded

Province IV has awarded $18,700 in ministry grants for 2018 to two projects that can become evangelistic models of ministry for parish planning and another for hands-on rehabilitative art for the homeless.

The DataStory Evangelism Project, sponsored by the Dioceses of Central Gulf Coast and Georgia, received a grant of $10,500. The funds will be used for trainers to learn and, in turn, teach how to use a demographic missional context analysis process and then help dioceses and congregations to understand and engage the communities they are called to serve.

The second grant for $8,200, goes to Southside Abby

Partners in Art in Chattanooga, Tenn., in the Diocese of East Tennessee. The project is aimed at people experiencing homelessness or severe economic vulnerability. It would offer classes (art, pottery, photography, etc.) and the resulting artwork would be for sale on the abbey's website. Revenues would be shared between the artist and the program.

"We are so fortunate to have such strong missional ministries in our Province," said Province IV President Angela Daniel. "It is our intent to invite the ministries to a future Synod where they can share their work — their successes and their challenges — with others in the Province."

UTO has new supplies distributor

The United Thank Offering has a new distributor for our supplies. All supplies can be ordered through <https://shimaoonavajoland.com/> We hope this change will not only solve some shipping issues that occurred in the past, but it also helps support the Diocese of Navajoland. Additionally, a number of Navajo products, made possible by UTO grants, are available for purchase. (see the photo) At this time, there are not a lot of different supplies ready for shipment because UTO is busy preparing new and exciting things to be revealed at General Convention in July.

Landers

Four grants were issued this year to seminarian students and Province IV has an association with all four. Sara Oxley, Diocese of Central Florida, and Caroline Carson, Diocese of Louisiana, were both awarded grants at their respective schools. Also, Leon Sampson and Nobet Ayeebo from Virginia Theological Seminary were given grants. Kathryn Florack, Diocese of Western North Carolina, was awarded a young adult grant as well. Good job Province IV! Please keep these grant opportunities in mind in the future and pass it on to your contacts.

During the last granting cycle, the UTO Board offered two webinars for the young adult/seminarian grants and 4 webinars for the regular grants. All were well attended. The webinar information is published with the applications and is a very good resource for grant writers, UTO coordinators, anyone who serves on a grant committee or just has an interest in UTO. UTO also offers webinars in the fall to help provide information to new coordinators. Details regarding the webinars can be found on the blog site, <https://uto2014.wordpress.com/>. The blog site also has a complete list of all the grants that have been awarded and numerous resources for your parish and diocese.

The United Thank Offering Board is getting ready for Triennial and we plan to spend our time promoting the practice of thankfulness and giving to UTO. If you are in Austin, stop by the UTO booth to pick up some of our giveaways as well as sign up for the drawing. We will be unveiling a new idea during convention so watch for the big announcement! The new book of prayers will be released during convention as well as some new products. All of these will then become available to be ordered at the Shima website.

As we celebrate the Easter season, let us remember to give our utmost thanks to God and drop our "prayers" into our blue boxes. Remember that 100 percent of all ingathering money is used to fund grants. Each grant represents a new ministry or an existing ministry that is expanding. UTO grants have touched the lives of millions of people both here in the United States as well as around the world. The UTO Board thanks you for your participation!

Youth Ministries

Dismantling racism, social justice issues among interests

Rooted in the Province IV Youth Ministries Leadership and Network Meeting that is held each December in a diocese within Province IV, young people and adults come together to share ideas, to learn about opportunities that surround us, to plan for future events and experiences and to be together as God's Family. The Diocese of Southwest Florida hosted our gathering at DaySpring Conference Center and offered more than 60 people beautiful surrounds in which we could work, worship and learn from one another.

Eric Travis, a member of the General Convention Task Force for the "Model Policy for the Protection of Children and Youth," came to share information and to answer questions about this new policy. We learned more about the three-year conference, "Lift Every Voice," and we began to creatively discuss ideas for the future of dismantling racism, increasing participation within our churches and our dioceses. We worked together and we shared meaningful and creative worship experiences, ending our time together with celebrating Holy Eucharist on the beach as the sunset. WOW!

Youth Presence

As we look forward to General Convention this summer in Austin, Texas, The Episcopal Church has invited 18 high school students to participate in General Convention with "Seat and Voice" in the House of Deputies. Province IV has always had an extremely large number of qualified young people who apply to be a member of the Official Youth Presence.

Justin Mullis, Diocese of North Carolina, and Helena Upshaw, Episcopal Church in South Carolina, have been selected to participate within this amazing group of young leaders! They will gather in Austin, Texas, on April 5-8, with some of the General Convention Leadership and with the adults who will be mentors during General Convention. They will learn more about General Convention, The Blue Book, Resolutions, Robert's Rules of Order, Committee Meetings, the rhythm of General Convention and speaking on the floor of General Convention. They will be at General Convention from July 1-13.

PYE in Atlanta

On July 25 - 28, the Province IV Youth Event, “PYE 2018: A Service Learning Opportunity for Peace” will be held in the Diocese of Atlanta. This Province IV High School Youth Experience will serve other people and communities will serve PYE 2018 in Atlanta... recognizing God's love within all of God's people. The focus of our week will be recognizing God's Presence in the world and identifying how we can we show God's love within our world. Some of our service partners will be Church of the Common Ground where we will be serving breakfast, leading morning prayer, and working at their foot clinic. At Holy Comforter, we will be serving in their kitchen and in their community garden.

We will be working with Smart Kid Smart Lunch by making lunches and delivering these lunches to children who are on assisted school lunch programs. At the Midtown Assistance Center, we will be working with clients, making lunches, and entering data for them. At the Atlanta Community Food Bank, we will be volunteering in the Disaster Relief Center and we will be loading donations for delivery.

After serving the community each day, we will spend each evening reflecting on that day's experience. Another part of our reflection time will be working with “Posts for Peace.” We will explore the various aspects of “PEACE” and we will share ideas of how we can be instruments of peace within Atlanta, back in our home communities, and in our world. We will be creating works of art using six-foot posts that will be displayed across our country to raise awareness and to stimulate conversations that will lead to peace and that will help resolve injustice in our world. You can find more information about “Posts for Peace” at www.postsforpeaceandjustice.org. Easton Davis, Diocese of Atlanta Youth and Young Adult Missioner, edavis@episcopatlanta.org is working with Province IV Youth Ministries Coordinator, Cookie Cantwell to create this meaningful service learning experience. Registration is still open.

Continuing LEV

During our 2017 Province IV Youth Ministries Leadership and Network Meeting, Beth Crow, Lead Youth Missioner in the Diocese of North Carolina, and youth who had participated in “Lift Every Voice “ (LEV), invited youth and adults who were interested in continuing the work that was begun through LEV to join together in conversations to dream about how Province IV could help facilitate possible next steps. This group of youth and adults have continued to stay in touch with each other through conference calls and they are working on plans for a visioning retreat in Atlanta several days prior to the Provincial Youth Event this summer. The group hopes to participate in some training at the recently opened The Absalom Jones Episcopal Center For Racial Healing in Atlanta, developing a stronger foundation for future youth/young adult initiatives focused on social injustice.

Ideas that the group have discussed include a Civil Rights Pilgrimage in 2019, with training in Non-Violent Communication skills, developing a database on ministries for young people in social justice, and establishment of a Provincial training network for youth and young adults to help lead diocesan programs. Further dreams involve incorporating connections with some of our companion dioceses, like “Lift Every Voice” did with Botswana and Cape Town. Most importantly, the youth want to continue to be empowered to address the social injustices in our communities which seem to have intensified over the last few years.

Pilgrimage to Scotland in September

In September 2018, Province IV Youth Ministries, Cookie Cantwell, will partner with Youth Presence Ministries, LLC, The Rev. John Palarine, on a Celtic Pilgrimage to Scotland & the NE coast of England — beginning in Lindisfarne and ending on the Isle of Iona. We will journey to these holy islands and where we will hear the echo of the voices of all who have journeyed here for so many centuries. It is our hope that we will live the Iona Service of Welcome: “We have come from many places for a little while. We have come with all our differences, seeking common ground. We have come on journeys of our own, to a place where journeys meet. So let us take time together, for when paths cross and pilgrims gather, there is much to share and celebrate.” It is our hope that in the future, Province IV Youth Ministries will travel together with our young people and with the adults who journey with them on their faith journeys on a future Pilgrimage to Iona.

As we look towards the future, our next Province IV Youth Ministries Leadership and Network Meeting will be held November 29 - December 2, 2018 at The Cathedral Domain, Diocese of Lexington. Cindy Sigmon, The Diocesan Youth Ministries Coordinator, and Andy Sigmon, The Cathedral Domain Director, will host our gathering.

Each Diocese is invited to bring 1 -2 adults and 2- 3 high school young people. Please mark your calendars now and make plans for this amazingly informative and ministry strengthening gathering.

Thank you, Province IV, for your investment in the lives of our young people and for the support and encouragement of our adults who are called by God to accompany our youth on their journeys of faith. Lives are being changed and our world is becoming a better place to live.

— Cookie Cantwell

Webinars probe GC key issues

The nine Provinces of The Episcopal Church — the Provincial Leadership Conference — are hosting a series of webinars on issues that will come before General Convention this summer.

The first webinar, held March 8, dealt with Reconciliation (racial reconciliation, gun violence and prison reform). It is available at no charge on YouTube at this online location:

Campus Ministries

It has been a humbling experience to be PIV Coordinator for Young Adult Campus Ministries (YACM), especially during the last year and the present. I am looking forward to sharing news of this ministry in more depth at the Province IV Synod in June. Here is a taste of where the Spirit has shown up...

Wood-Miles

Last fall we enjoyed record participation at our Annual Chaplain's Retreat. This retreat is held annually at Ignatius House Jesuit Retreat Center, Sandy Springs, Ga.

Also, I recently visited Ruge Hall at Florida State University in Tallahassee, Fla. The Rev. Brian Smith hosted me while I toured the newly renovated Ruge Hall. Smith has worked in partnership with Choi Alpha to provide free coffee in their coffee shop, with much success. The ministry at FSU is one of seven ministries who applied for a YACM grant this year. (Last year we had no applications for this grant. The grant process is a topic upon which I will speak at the Province IV Synod meeting in June.

For the rest of the semester I have confirmed travel to Atlanta, and to North Carolina. For our next Chaplain's Retreat we will have the Rev. Tom Brackett as our Program Guest. I strongly encourage all bishops to send their chaplains to this retreat. Being among one's cohorts, in this idyllic setting, to learn, share, and grow is priceless.

All of the chaplains and I are tremendously grateful to God and Province IV for the continued love, support and answered prayers, that we continue to enjoy.

Building a network of support

Grace for Creation Council advances

The work of building a network of support and cooperation for creation care in Province IV continues to advance. In response to the call for the creation of such groups at General Convention in 2015 (Resolution A030), an initial steering group has been formed from nominees from the Province IV dioceses and other recommendations. The steering group has had an initial meeting and planning retreat in Sewanee, Tenn., and continues to meet monthly via video conference. After a good bit of discussion toward defining scope and purpose for such a group, the name Grace for Creation Council was selected to capture the nature and purpose of its work.

Cappel

This is how the Advisory Council on the Stewardship of Creation has described the nature of its work to General Convention (Blue Book, 2018):

The Advisory Council has discerned an overarching need to create and foster a church-wide flexible network to inspire and support all people doing the church's work for environmental stewardship and ecological justice.

This flexible network will be organized into two groups:

1. Grace for Creation

Council: A steering committee responsible for building, supporting, connecting, promoting, empowering the Grace for Creation Network, and

2. Grace for Creation Network: A community of support, comprised of groups and individuals around the Province who have gifts and expertise that can support creation care in Province IV and the whole church

Council's networking

The Grace for Creation Council will act as a source for vision, scope and procedure for building and extending the Grace for Creation network. Members of that committee will meet online at least monthly and will be comprised of individuals from across the province with a passion for this work. The Grace for Creation Network will be comprised of the people with gifts, talents or expertise for the various dimensions of caring for creation and are willing to act as a resource to the work from time to time. Such gifts and skills would include expertise in environmental science, engineering, law, biology, climate, etc.; gifts and expertise in church life, theology, music, liturgy, spirituality, etc.; and gifts and expertise in advocacy, community organizing, policy, etc.

The scope and purpose of Grace for Creation Council and Network is not to be a source of creating new initiatives and programs, but rather to be a resource to the individuals, churches and other organizations doing such work in Province IV. The help available to individuals and ministries could include consulting and support around teaching, organizing, planning, programming, promotion, worship and liturgy, etc. It is the hope and prayer of Grace for Creation Council that these types of support and resources would serve to enliven the church and our communities in this important work.

If you are interested in supporting the work by getting involved in the Grace for Creation Network, or would like to seek support from the network, please contact the Rev. Jerry Cappel, Province IV Environmental Network Coordinator, at jjcappel@hotmail.com.

ECW Annual Retreat set June 4-6

The Province IV ECW will hold its annual retreat June 4-6 at Kanuga, with the Rev. Dr. Sandra McCann of the Diocese of Atlanta and Tanzania, as the keynote speaker and priest. "Building Bridges of Peace and Reconciliation" is the continuing theme; this year, the focus will be on building bridges in the country and in the world.

Dr. McCann lived and worked in Dodoma, Tanzania, in the Anglican Diocese of Central Tanganyika, for more than 12 years with her husband, Martin (also a physician), where she served as communications director for Msalato Theological College, as well as fulfilling other roles there. She also served St.

McCann

Philip's Theological College in Maseno, Kenya. She is a priest, tutor, radiologist, assistant professor, chaplain, communications director, mother, wife, and grandmother.

The Martins returned to the United States in 2015 to the Diocese of Atlanta.

In 2016 Virginia Theological Seminary awarded her an honorary doctor in divinity, degree (honoris causa) She had earned her Master in Divinity degree from VTS in 2003. Earlier, she attended the School of Servant Leadership as part of the mission of the Church of the Savior in Adams Morgan area of Washington, D.C.

The retreat will also offer opportunities for workshops to assist individuals with diocesan and parish ECW chapters, as well as time for recreation and fellowship.
