Dream Big

God's asking us to live Gospel

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare [peace] and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope."
— Jeremiah 29:11

Dear Friends in Christ,

You have been in my thoughts and prayers more often than you could know. So many of you have seen your own communities directly impacted by recent disturbing events. What a year this has been! Mother Nature has been doing her best to remind us that yes, indeed, climate change is real; politicians have been doing their worst to remind us that we must "respect the dignity of every human being;" and people have been marching in the streets to remind us that we need to work harder to "do justice." God knows the plans that he has for us, but we need to discern together what those plans are and what we are going to do to put those plans into action, working together to accomplish outcomes that we could not possibly accomplish alone. What wonderful opportunities God is placing before us to "live" the Gospel!

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

"Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established." — Proverbs 16:3

In June, we will be gathering at Kanuga for our Province IV Synod (I can't wait to see you!), one of two such gatherings that we have each triennium. Plans are under way to use this first Synod to celebrate the ministries of Province IV, to study what is working and what is not, and to collaborate on plans for moving forward together as followers of Christ - strengthening the Jesus Movement and "commit[ting] our work to the Lord."

"I can do all things through him who strengthens me." — Philippians 4:13

During the next few weeks, please be on the lookout for

HIV/AIDS Retreat ends 25-year ministry

The Province IV annual HIV/AIDS Retreat ended June 12 with the announcement that the retreat, celebrating its 25th anniversary, would be the last retreat. Ministry leaders expressed hope that new initiatives serving the HIV/AIDS population in Province IV would surface in future months.

Province IV President Angela Daniel was on hand for the closing Eucharist and to offer ministry leaders thanks for their faithful and compassionate service over many years.

Bruce Garner, a member of the retreat's Executive Committee, preached at the Eucharist and invited attendees to gather afterwards in front of the Chapel of the Transfiguration at Kanuga to witness the releasing of 26 white mountain doves as a symbol of the two-and-a-half decades of service the Province information regarding our Province IV 2017 granting process. Funds available for 2017 total $20,000 and, depending on the applications, may be awarded in full to one outstanding proposal or divided among a variety of proposals. My challenge to you is to THINK BIG!

We in Province IV are truly blessed, as I am reminded each time I attend a Provincial Leadership Conference or a meeting of the Task Force to Study Provinces. We know how to use our many God-given gifts collectively to “do all things through him who strengthens [us].”

“Dream big and plan for how God might use you, but submit to God’s will and seek His blessing in the outworking of your plans.”— Steven J. Cole (Baptist minister in Flagstaff, Arizona)

Please prayerfully consider ideas for new ministries or for longstanding ones in need of rehab; ministries that encourage collaboration and can impact not only your parishes and/or dioceses but, indeed, the broader church. Think about the current needs of our world and how we can respond as “hands-on”

Christians to those needs. Your Province IV Executive Committee recently had the pleasure of reviewing excellent proposals for a Constable Grant, including one regarding environmental concerns and another for racial reconciliation, both “dreaming big.” The wonderful thing about those proposals is that they involved exciting collaborations, sometimes between: large institutions and dioceses; existing aid organizations and dioceses; local volunteer groups, parishes and dioceses. The list could go on and on - including collaborations crossing provincial boundaries! DREAM BIG — and share those dreams!

I am most thankful for each of you, and for the blessing of being able to serve in Province IV. As you gather with family and/or friends this Thanksgiving, please remember that God does have plans for us — and be grateful.

Your grateful servant,

Angela M. Daniel
President, Province IV

Doves release marks end of ministry

IV ministry group has worked to provide a retreat for those suffering with HIV/AIDS and for their care-givers. (Twenty-five doves represented the years of ministry, and one more for the Holy Spirit.)

Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, formerly the diocesan bishop for North Carolina, has served twice as the retreat chaplain.

This year, the Rev. Marty Stebbens, rector of St. Timothy’s Episcopal Church in Wilson, N.C., served as chaplain, and Trey Clegg, music director at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church in Atlanta, was the retreat musician.

Lola Thomas, longtime chair of the Province IV HIV/AIDS ministry, was recognized at the closing ceremony with a gift and acknowledgment of her faithful and enthusiastic leadership.

ECW builds bridges of peace, reconciliation

The Province IV Episcopal Church Women Annual Retreat in June 2016 was a wonderful time of fellowship and renewal amidst the beautiful woods and lake at Kanuga Conference Center in North Carolina. It was great fun to re-connect with old friends and to make new friends as we focused on “Building Bridges of Peace and Reconciliation: Year One: In Our Own Lives and in Our Families.”

The Rev. Lindsay Hardin Freeman, author of Bible Women: All their Words and Why They Matter, led us in study, reflection, and worship as we focused on the Shalom and leadership of women in the Bible. She is truly a remarkable woman of courage, vision, intellect, spirituality, and personality. And how great to have her husband, The Rev. Leonard Freeman, join us with his Bible Jeopardy, healing prayers, and general good will.

A special treat this year was a visit from the Rev. Rowena Kemp, the chaplain of the Girls Friendly Society. She presented the engaging work of the Girls Friendly Society and offered healing prayers at our Eucharist. It was also good to hear updates from National ECW President Lisa Towle and Province IV Administrator Gene Willard.

Special thanks and recognition go out to the hard-working Province IV board: Alsie Churchman, Secretary/Treasurer; Joyce Landers, UTO Representative for Province IV; Mary Beth Welch, Province IV Representative to the National Board; Suzanne Harrow, CPC Representative for Province IV; and to Marcie Cherau, National UTO Vice President. These women offered leadership, time, dedication, ideas, muscle, golf-cart navigation, and general good cheer.

Many thanks also to the leaders of the great workshops: Joyce Landers, UTO; Charlotte, “CC” Johnson, Reading Camp; Winsome Stern and Dee Henson-Governor, Dynamic Diocesan ECWs; Suzanne Harrow, CPC; recently ordained deacon Andrea Peacock, yoga; Diane Burrows, meditative art; Whitney Evans and Meredith Blocker on reaching out to young women in the ECW. Many thanks also to those who served in the Closing Eucharist.

In 2017, the Province IV ECW will hold its annual retreat June 5 through 7 at Camp McDowell in Alabama. There we will focus on building bridges of peace and reconciliation in our parishes and communities, with an emphasis on racial reconciliation.

Celebrating the birth of new possibilities

The Season of Fall is a beautiful and interesting time of the year. Where I live, the leaves of the trees are beginning to change colors and the world outside of my window reveal a scenery of Technicolor beauty that lasts for a few short weeks. I truly appreciate the beauty of this season yet I know that it will not last. I know that I need to take the time to appreciate its amazing beauty and also to prepare for the next phase of our seasonal pattern.

Province IV Youth Ministries 2016 is also in a beautiful season of change. Our 20 Diocesan Youth Ministries are working hard and impacting the lives of young people and the adults who accompany our young people on their journeys of faith. It is beautiful to watch and it is exciting to see all of the activities, outreach, spiritual formation and opportunities to connect to these people to the reality of our Living God. Province IV Youth Ministries seeks to connect our dioceses and to offer opportunities to gather as the larger Body of Christ so we can share with one another, learn from each other, serve together and more fully gather for worship.

By coming together as Province IV Youth Ministries, we enhance our desire and commitment to live more fully within our Baptismal Covenant.

As our winter season approaches, we are preparing for our Province IV Youth Ministries Leadership and Network Meeting 2016 that will gather at Lake Logan Conference Center, Canton, N.C., in the Diocese of Western North Carolina. All 20 dioceses are invited to bring two Adults and two-three young people who are leaders within their diocesan youth programs. Our attendance at this yearly event is remarkable high!

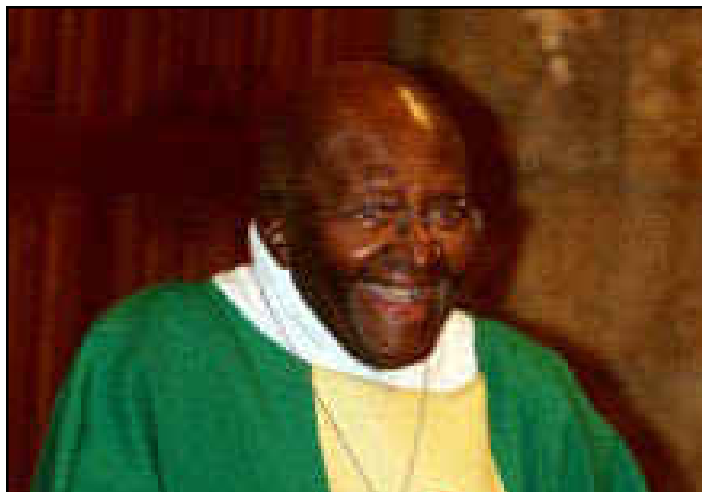

Each year we travel to a different diocese so we can learn more about our host diocese and be immersed in the culture of that diocesan youth program. As we gather, we share our successes and we also share our challenges. We share ideas and we share opportunities. We share worship and we share recreation. We share our needs and we share the needs of our world. There is time for work and there is time for rest. There are old friends and there are new friends. The relationships that God creates are meaningful and full of life... God Living Among Us!

At this year's gathering, The Rev. Tom Brackett, Missioner, New Church Starts and Missional Initiatives, The Episcopal Church Center, will be sharing the "Art of Hosting and Convening Conversations." Just as our lives are changing, our Church is changing. We are living, working and building relationships in that "in-between space" — the space between what used to work and some emerging new ways of coming together and paying attention to each other. We will “lean into the future” where we “co-create” with other people what we need and who we are called to be.

From our “belovedness,” God will guide us on the pathway to authentic relationships, abundant life and a stronger, healthier community. All participants at our Province IV Youth Ministries Leadership and Network Meeting will be encouraged to “Bring who they are and Take what they need!”

A Celtic Journey

Province IV Youth Ministries is partnering with The Rev. Dr. John Palarine, Canon for Program and Youth in the Diocese of Southwest Florida and director of Youth Presence Ministries, LLC to offer “A Pilgrimage to Lindisfarne and Iona — A Celtic Journey for Adult Youth Leaders & Friends and Adult Leaders in the Episcopal Church, May 17 - 28, 2017. The Rev. Marcus Losack, Ceile De Pilgrimages, will guide this pilgrimage. This opportunity to experience these holy islands and to hear the echo of the voices of all who have journeyed these sacred places will be a stepping-stone for our Adult Youth Leaders to grow spiritually and to learn from this pilgrimage with the possibility of bringing young people to these unique and holy places.

For more information, please contact John Palarine, jejpal@aol.com

Lift Every Voice

The Youth Ministries of Province IV continues to strive to both educate our young people on issue of racial injustice and to provide a platform for them to share their stories. Next summer, we will be working with the Diocese of North Carolina in their ministry of Lift Every Voice (<http://lifteveryvoice.dionc.org/index.html>), a three-year program designed to examine racial injustice from the early days of slavery to the Apartheid government in South Africa, to the Black Lives Matter movement today. Lift Every Voice, which is funded largely by the Jessie Ball DuPont Fund, was held in North Carolina in 2015 with participants from 12 dioceses across the United States, Botswana and Cape Town, South Africa. Lift Every Voice, 2016 was held in Cape Town, South Africa and focused on South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation process, strengthening our "listening skills" of others' stories and discerning how to respond to these stories as disciples of change.

Next summer, Lift Every Voice, 2017 and Province IV are coordinating the final year of Lift Every Voice, which will be held at Haw River State Park in North Carolina.

Youth and adults who accompany our young people are encouraged to share this meaningful experience where ideas, concepts, realities, hopes and dreams will be shaped into ways that we can take this truth and reconciliation into our world! More information will be shared at our Province IV Youth Ministries Leadership and Network Meeting in December and you may contact Beth Crow, coordinator of Lift Every Voice and Lead Youth Missioner for the Diocese of North Carolina. beth.crow@episdionc.org

Once again I would like to thank the people of Province IV for your commitment to our young people and to the adults who journey with our youth! I am overwhelmed by the magnitude of the support and encouragement that Province IV gives as they invest time and energy into the spiritual growth and development of our youth. As we experience this Fall Season and as we witness the beauty of God's Creation, let us remember the many changes that are occurring in the lives of all people who have been affected by Hurricane Matthew and also in the lives of our adolescents. Let us celebrate the birth of new possibilities!

Sullivan named president of Kanuga

The Rev. Michael Radford Sullivan, rector of Holy Innocents Episcopal Church in Atlanta, has been named as the new president of Kanuga Conference Center, effective in early November.

He succeeds Stanley B. Hubbard Jr. who will retire at the end of the year.

Sullivan, has been at Holy Innocents since 2009; at the suburban 2,500-member Atlanta parish, he was instrumental in extensive strategic planning and fundraising, including raising more than $37 million over several campaigns.

Before his tenure at Holy Innocents,

Sullivan was rector at St. John's, Lynchburg, Va. and Canon for Mission at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, in Columbia, S.C.

“Michael has built a remarkable track record of financial oversight, strategic planning and significant development accomplishments,” said Edward D. Colhoun IV, chairman of the Kanuga Board of Trustees. “He brings a tremendous background to Kanuga. He has proven to be an inspiring leader, and I am pleased that someone of his professional caliber and experience will strengthen the future of Kanuga.”

Stewardship of Creation

Regional group to form in Province IV

At our General Convention in 2015, the Presiding Officers, in response to General Convention 2015's Resolution A030 "Create Task Force On Climate Change" named an Advisory Council for the Stewardship of Creation as the organizing body to enable local faith-based projects for mitigating climate change and safeguarding the integrity of Creation.

Resolution A030 calls for the council to form Regional Consultative Groups (RCG's) for local technical support and networking of environmental ministries and initiatives. Each RCG will include individuals who can support needs in education, theology and liturgy as well as ecological experts to equip dioceses and congregations as they live into the Church's mission to join in the reconciliation of all God's creation.

The work of forming the RCG for Province IV is beginning immediately and will organize in the coming months. You are encouraged to consider whether you might wish to serve on the Province IV RCG.

If you feel you might be of service on the Province IV RCG, you are encouraged to contact The Rev. Jerry Cappel, Province IV Network Coordinator, at jjcappel@hotmail.com.

The work of RCG would include:

- Resourcing ministries and initiatives in creation care
- Connecting and networking
- Nurturing enthusiasm and motivation
- Identifying education and formation resources

For the Province IV RCG to do this work, the group needs to include a broad range of skills and abilities in parish leadership, liturgy, theology, science, community organizing, advocacy and education. We need clergy, liturgists, activists, educators and experts in the related sciences to participate in the RCG. If you have a passion for this and feel you can contribute to this work, you are encouraged to inquire about next steps.

The Province IV members of the Advisory Council for the Stewardship of Creation are:

- Ms. Perry Hodgkins Jones, Vice President of Warka Water, Inc., Diocese of Atlanta.
- Dr. Andrew Thompson, Assistant Director, Center for Religion and Environment, Postdoctoral Fellow in Environmental Ethics, the School of Theology, the University of the South.
- The Rev. Jerry Cappel, Network Coordinator, Province IV Environmental Network.

As each province organizes its RCG, each will receive some funding support from the Advisory Council, and communications will be shared across provinces. It is hoped this initiative will move the church forward in its ability to care for the integrity of creation.

We cannot care for one another without caring for the world we share. We cannot follow Jesus without caring for the creation that He came to bless and to redeem. For the Jesus Movement, the movement that proclaims and strives to live God's dream of peace and reconciliation, care for the environment - like racial reconciliation and evangelism - can no longer be seen as optional. It is absolutely essential. It is Gospel.

— The Advisory Council on the Stewardship of Creation

$1 million challenge

PIV UTO contribution is largest

It is hard to believe that we are coming to the end of the second year of the triennium. During the last triennium, Province IV presented $882,544.35 during the ingathering at Convention in Salt Lake City. This was the largest contribution from any of the provinces. We knew we were great, and we are, but we can be even better.

My challenge is to send in an even $1 million for the next convention. In 2015 we raised $292,656.02. Almost a third of the way there! If you help me get the word out, we can make it. God has granted us so many blessings. In 2016, Province IV received two young adult grants totaling $4,994 and seven regular grants totaling $222,975. Unfortunately, there were several others that were not funded because we ran out of money. If everyone in Province IV gave just $2, UTO could fund more grants than ever before.

The picture above shows the UTO board as we visited the site of The Tiny Houses project at St. James Episcopal Church in Cannon Ball, N.D. They are building tiny houses for young men from the Standing Rock Reservation. These houses will be for young men who are working to become independent adults and need a little extra help. Some are attending college nearby or in the process of trying to find employment that can sustain them. This is just one of the many amazing projects that UTO is funding.

For a complete list, please visit our website <http://www.epis->

Here are some important dates to remember. The UTO board is in the process of receiving young adult and seminarian grant applications. They are due Friday, November 4 at 5 p.m. EST. The press release for the regular granting cycle will come out the first week of December. All this information can be found at our website. We will have a number of Zoom webinars to answer any questions you may have and we will also offer grant writing tips. Please check them out.

As we enter into the season of Christmas, let us not forget to celebrate Thanksgiving. When we stop to consider all that we have, rather than all that we want, we come to realize the true gifts in our lives. So, offer your prayers of thanksgiving to God and put a coin, or some quiet money, into your blue box. Your blessings can become blessings to others.

— Joyce Landers
UTO Province IV representative

Most PIV dioceses have ‘Companions’

During these past few months information has been gathered concerning the companion diocese relationships within Province IV. Shortly there will be an update of these relationships. Out of our 20 dioceses, 18 have a relationship with one or more dioceses. Please know that I am available to you and your questions about companion diocese relationships. I am able to put you in touch with available resources and would be happy to speak with you about your endeavors. The updated information will be available on the Province IV website once the update has been completed.

In May of this year I had the opportunity to attend the 21st annual Global Mission Episcopal Network Conference in Ponce, Puerto Rico. It was a wonderful way to network with people from Province IV as well as others from The Episcopal Church.

What a pleasure to have The Rt. Rev. Michael B. Curry as the keynoter. With passion and emphasis on mission, Presiding Bishop Curry referred to the Jesus Movement, which includes both evangelism and reconciliation. He also emphasized the importance of relationships, citing his time as Bishop of North Carolina and the relationship between the Diocese of North Carolina and the Diocese of Costa Rica, one of mutual trust and respect.

Allison Duvall and Wendy Johnson of Episcopal Migration Ministries, in their presentation, reminded us of issues and challenges of ministries surrounding refugees. A panel including Bishop Julio Holguin, the Diocese of the Dominican Republic; Noah Bullock, Executive Director of Foundation Cristosal; Jose Bringas Lisare of the Diocese of Cuba; Bishop Francisco Duque of the Diocese of Colombia; and the Rev. Angel Rivera, a priest in the Diocese of Puerto Rico; responded by talking about the effect of migration within in their countries. The moderator was Bishop Ramos, Diocese of Puerto Rico. Whether migrants are looking for work or are refugees due to natural disasters or violence. there are more people today seeking support from other countries than their own.

Besides the time for worship and networking, small group sessions revolved around the conference theme of “God’s Mission with a World in Continuous Motion”. Numerous workshops were held about issues concerning different areas of missionary work including discernment, fundraising and resources; reconciliation; refugees and there was an opportunity to meet many involved with The Episcopal Church Mission Personnel Program and the Young Adult Service Corps.

There were also opportunities to visit local sites, to participate in daily worship and to hear and watch student artists perform as well as enjoying a “Puerto Rico Night”.

The closing Eucharist was held at Iglesia San Lucas, the church on the San Lucas Hospital Campus.

I would like to encourage you to plan on attending the next Global Episcopal Network Conference which will be held May 24-26 at Camp McDowell in beautiful Nauvoo, Ala. For information visit: www.gemn.org This is a wonderful opportunity to meet people involved in mission, to share ideas, and to deepen your faith. There is also an opportunity to become involved in the Global Mission Formation Program while there.

Please let me know if I may be of service to you:
